

RESEARCH SEMINAR:

JANE MALEY

(Charles Sturt University, Australia)

Tuesday, July 18th

Faculty of Economics and Business Administration (Campus of Vigo). Seminar-room 8

10.30-11.15: Expatriate compensation & Globalisation of Australian SMEs - A synopsis (including time for Q/A and open debate)

11.15-11.45: Coffee-break

11.45-12.15: Editor's hints to be published in top journals (questions & answers format)

Free registration, with limited capacity, by sending an e-mail to bvlacic@alumnos.uvigo.es.

Organizer: Miguel G. Loureiro (Dept. of Business Organization and Marketing). With the collaboration of

<http://seminariodeeconomia.webs.uvigo.es/>

www.ecobas.es/gl/seminarios.php

JANE MALEY

(Charles Sturt University, Australia)

Prof. Jane Maley is Associate Editor of the Journal of Business Research (30/121 in JCR, Q1 in Business) within the topic Strategic Management and Organizational Behaviour. Prior to becoming an Academic, Jane Maley held Managing Director roles for UK, US and Japanese Biotech Multinational Corporations. She received her Doctorate from Macquarie University, Graduate School of Management in 2006. Since gaining her Doctorate, she has worked as an International Management Consultant and University Lecturer. As a Consultant, Jane has worked with a range of Australian and international, private, public sector and non-profit organizations. As a Lecturer, she has taught a wide spectrum of management subjects at undergraduate and postgraduate level in Australia and overseas. Jane joined Macquarie University, Department of Marketing and Management in 2010 and currently lectures in Human Resource Management and International Human Resource Management. She has published over a dozen international peer referenced journal, conference publications and book chapters. Her research interests include international performance management and multinational corporation headquarter-subsidiary relationships.

<http://seminariodeeconomia.webs.uvigo.es/>

www.ecobas.es/gl/seminarios.php